Juliana De Lavor Lopes, Vice-President of the RTRS Executive Board, agrees to chair the meeting and welcomes the participants to the Executive Board meeting. The agenda is presented and participants are asked whether any additional topics should be included. The meeting begins.

Leslie Leinders informs the members of the Executive Board that Unilever’s has decided to reprioritize certain activities within its sustainability agenda and focus on certain other areas. As a result of the foregoing, although Unilever will remain RTRS member, it has decided to resign to its seat at the Executive Board.

The Executive Director explains that Unilever’s decision to resign creates a vacancy in the Industry Trade & Finance constituency. According to RTRS Statutes, in case of a vacancy, the members of the Executive Board of the respective constituency are entitled to designate another Individual Member, Member Organization, group of Individual Members, or group of Member Organizations as interim Executive Board member until the next General Assembly.

After debating the matter, the members of the Industry Trade & Finance constituency, decide to instruct the RTRS Secretariat to send to the members of the constituency an open call for potential candidates and differ the decision on whether the Unilever’s seat shall be filled with a new member or shall remain vacant until feedback is received in response to the mentioned call for nominations.

A. Quorum and Proposals

The Executive Secretary ascertains that the quorum required to validly pass resolutions has been reached. The Executive Board considers the following items on the agenda:

1. Welcome to new EB Members and presentation.

The Executive Secretary welcomes the new Executive Board members and asks every individual to briefly introduce himself/herself.

Annex #2-Minutes 143 (1)
2. President, Vice-President and Treasurer elections.

The Executive Board members deliberate on the elections of the President, the Vice-Presidents and Treasurer.

In view of the opinions and preferences expressed by the members of the Executive Board, Debora Telles, proposes the following:

(i) President: elect Marina Born de Engels as RTRS President, who shall bestowed with the authority to sign solely,

(ii) Vice-President No.1: (re-) elect Juliana De Lavor Lopes as RTRS Vice-President, and

(iii) Vice-President No.2: elect Ulises Javier Martinez as RTRS Vice-President,

(iv) Vice-President No.3: (re-) elect Belinda Katharine Howell as RTRS Vice-President,

(v) Treasurer: (re-) elect Alejandro José O'Donnell as RTRS Treasurer, who shall bestowed with the authority to sign solely.

In the absence of any objections, Juliana De Lavor Lopes confirms that the resolutions are approved by the Executive Board.

The RTRS Executive Board resolves the following:

"To elect Marina Born de Engels as RTRS President, who shall bestowed with the authority to sign solely (by consensus)."

"To (re-) elect Juliana De Lavor Lopes as RTRS Vice-President No. 1 (by consensus)."

"To elect Ulises Javier Martinez as RTRS Vice-President No.2 (by consensus)."

"To (re-) elect Belinda Katharine Howell as RTRS Vice-President No. 3 (by consensus)."

"To (re-) Alejandro José O'Donnell as RTRS Treasurer, who shall bestowed with the authority to sign solely."

3. Wrap up RT12/RT13.

Due to the lack of time, it is decided to differ this topic to the next Executive Board meeting.

4. A: National Interpretations Brazil and Paraguay approval. B: National Interpretation Argentina.

Daniel Kazimierski shows to the members of the Executive Board the presentation about the National Interpretations.
The Executive Board decides to postpone the approval of the National Interpretations until—the analysis and definition of the “unit certification” for and in each country is defined.

However, for Brazilian National interpretation there was a debate to eliminate Guidance 4.4.1.a.

The RTRS Executive Board resolves the following:

“In the case of the Brazilian National Interpretation the following quote of the point Guidance 4.4.1.a in the standard will be taken-out (by consensus).”

4.4.1.a “In case of doubt regarding RTRS Maps, Category 1, certification shall only be permitted through authorization for clearing from a relevant body.”

5. Update on the progress of the ITF template of the Annual Report.

Due to the lack of time, it is decided to differ this topic to the next Executive Board meeting.

Due to the lack of time, it is decided to differ this topic to the next Executive Board meeting.

7. RTRS Non-GMO Module (Requirements for Producers).

Due to the lack of time, it is decided to differ this topic to the next Executive Board meeting.

8. Other business:

The Executive Board agree there are no further topics to be discussed.

9. Closing.
