During the Executive Board meeting held on November 6, 2019, the RTRS Secretariat agreed to discuss a new proposal for the venue of the Executive Board physical meeting to be held in February 2020. In this sense, São Paulo, Brazil is proposed as alternative location for a meeting to be held on February 13 and February 14, 2020.

After a brief exchange of views, the Executive Board members decide to select the first option presented during the Executive Board meeting held on November 6, namely to hold the Executive Board physical meeting in Sorriso, Brazil on Wednesday 12 and Thursday 13 February, 2020, within the framework of the 2020 RTRS Field Trip.

In the absence of any objections, Marina Born confirms that the Executive Board approves the resolution.

The RTRS Executive Board resolves the following:

"To hold the next Executive Board physical meeting on Wednesday 12 and Thursday 13 February 2020, in Sorriso, Brazil (by consensus)."

5. FVSA Statement: FVSA Chaco Region Declaration.

Ulises Javier Martinez Ortiz refers to the “Declaration for the Future of the Chaco Region 2019” (the “Declaration”) in the frame of the “Compromiso Gran Chaco 2030” led by certain Argentinean associations, such as Fundación Vida Silvestre Argentina (FVSA - member associated to World Wildlife Fund - WWF), Fundación Ambiente y Recursos Naturales (FARN) and AVINA Foundation. The Declaration has been already endorsed by more than 100 Argentinean-based organizations.

Marina Born welcomes the Declaration and refers to the “RTRS Statement Chaco Region Declaration.” She stresses the need to extend the scope of RTRS’ declaration to other countries, such as Paraguay and Bolivia. She further suggests working in collaboration with the Argentinean Mesa Redonda Global para la Ganadería Sostenible (Global Roundtable for Sustainable Beef - GRSB) in a joint statement on the Chaco Region and the deforestation issue, which, according to Marina Born, involves not only soy but also cattle.
The Executive Board members agree with Marina Born’s suggestion.

Juliana de Lavor Lopes asks Ulises Javier Martínez Ortiz about the scope of the Declaration and its consultation with other actors and sectors of the soy value chain, such as producers and private companies.

Ulises Javier Martínez Ortiz confirms that since most of the supporters are civil society organizations and academic organizations, producers and private companies were not consulted.

Juliana de Lavor Lopes suggests sharing the declaration and engaging with the private sector and producers in order to expand the endorsement of the Declaration.

Ulises Javier Martínez Ortiz agrees with Juliana de Lavor Lopes’ approach. Marina Born takes the floor and suggests:

- working on a collaborative communication approach with GRSB Argentina;
- drafting a new version of the Statement towards the Declaration (the RTRS Secretariat working together with a group of RTRS Executive Board members); and
- presenting a communication during the Executive Board physical meeting to be held in February 2020.

The Executive Board members agree with Marina Born’s suggestions.

Since no further comments or questions are posed on the subject, the Executive Board members decide to move to the next item in the agenda.

6. Update on RT15 & Sponsoring Communication.

An update on the RT15 is presented.

The Executive Board members are informed that the Amsterdam Declarations Partnership (ADP) has informed RTRS that the Amsterdam Declarations Meeting may be rescheduled for June 4, 2020.

The Executive Board members agree that the engagement with ADP and the opportunity of holding a back-to-back event with such organization are priorities for RTRS. Therefore, the Executive Board members agree to reschedule the date of the RT15 for June 2 and June 3, 2020, provided that the ADP meeting is also rescheduled for these dates.

Since no further comments or questions are posed on the subject, the Executive Board members decide to move to the next item in the agenda.
7. Any other business.

Lieven Callewaert requests to discuss about the Collaborative Soy Initiative (CSI). He suggests that the CSI’s governance issue must be solved before the next CSI Steering Committee meeting to be held on December 3, 2019.

The Executive Board members remark that many aspects related to the CSI need to be discussed -including the governance structure-, such as, the role of RTRS Members, the funding, among others; and suggest postponing the discussion of this topic until the discussions within the “Beyond 2020” RTRS Strategy are finished, since the CSI is an important part of the agenda of such strategy.

Since no further comments or questions are posed on the subject, the Executive Board members decide to move to the next item in the agenda.

8. Closing

The meeting is closed on Wednesday, November 27, 2019 at 16:00 CET time.
